

PMA 2018
Conference Programme V3.0

Sunday 23rd September

Registration and Reception

Main Building of the Warsaw University of Technology
Pl. Politechniki 1
00-661 Warsaw

PMA 2018

Conference Programme V2.0

Monday 24th September

8.30	Registration , Centre for Innovation and Technology Transfer Management of Warsaw University of Technology Rektorska 400-614 Warsaw
9.00	Welcome
9.30	Key Note Session Towards a Web-based Social and Economic Performance Management Prof Stanisław Strzelczak, Warsaw University of Technology
10.45	Coffee
11.15	Session 1 PMS in wider social systems	Session 2	Session 3 Performance and Projects
	An investigation of the influence of social system on performance management Jean Egbegi, Pauline Leowenberger and John Clark		Assessing Project Management Maturity – A Swedish study Gunnar Dahlin and Olof Molinder
	Testing a Maturity Grid for Assessing Sustainability Reports Raine Isaksson and Mathias Cöster		Project Leadership Survival Skills Sarah Coleman & Mike Bourne
	On Performance Management in Web-based Business Ecosystems Stanislaw Strzelczak		How to performance manage a government major project portfolio Mike Bourne, David Ankor, Glenn Chambers & Laszlo Tojai
12.45	Lunch

13.45	Key Note A positive approach to organizational strategy and performance Dr. Wafi Dawood, Board member & CEO of Strategy & Planning, Knowledge and Human Development Authority (KHDA). UAE.
15.00	Coffee
15.30	Session 4	Session 5	Session 6
	Performance and quality		Strategy and Performance Workshop
	Design of effective performance measurement system using QFD Shuki Dror		Patterns of Strategy Patrick Hoverstadt, Fractal
	Contribution to a Lean Maturity Evaluation: Leanness Metrics Calculation Aicha Anne Amrani, Jalal Joseph Possik, Yves Ducq and Gregory Zacharewicz
	A System-Wide Quality Improvement Maturity Model Adeel Akmal, Richard Greatbanks and André Everett
17.00	Closing Session
17.15	Close

Tuesday 25th September

8.30	Registration , Centre for Innovation and Technology Transfer Management of Warsaw University of Technology Rektorska 400-614 Warsaw
9.00	Key Note Session Reflections on Japanese Performance Management Prof. Shigeki Umeda, Musashi University, Tokyo, Japan
10.30	Coffee
11.00	Session 7 Thinking about PM	Session 8 Behaviour and PM	Session 9 Performance in Practice
	Is control fit for learning? How management control is implicated in organizational learning Andrea Bellisario, Sandra Tillema and Martijn Van Der Steen	What counts as a cultural problem in relation to management accounting and control? Emilia Samuelsson	Developing of shrink sleeve labels converting process with application of selected data mining tools Krzysztof Krystosiak, Masterpress
	Organizational Performance: What is it and who decides Andrey Pavlov and Pietro Micheli	How to measure performance of predictive models development for marketing Jonatan Bouchard	Production and Process Performance Analysis and its Role in Automotive Steel Manufacturing Arcellor-Mittal
	Towards a theory of Performance Measurement and Management Mike Bourne & Andrey Pavlov	Exploring the dynamics between management attention in performance measurement and management: An inductive case study approach Tom Pfefferkorn, Umit Bititci and William Jackson	Project Performance Measurement – Experience of International Construction Company HOCHTIEF (Eryk Głodziński):.
12.30	Lunch

13.30	Session 10 Public Sector PMS	Session 11 Performance in context	Session 12 Using Performance Measurement
	The Performance Measurement in the Public Sector: A systematic review Patrizia Garengo, Alberto Sardi and Arturo Lorenzoni	High Performance Computing in business Paweł Gepner & Kazimierz Waćkowski).	Performance Management and Alliance Formation: A Narrative Perspective Paul C. van Fenema and Bianca Keers
	Key managerial activities to support public performance measurement and management: The case of an effective Italian Court Alberto Sardi, Patrizia Garengo and Frida Betto	Innovation management at the Business Accelerator Michał Bańka	The defense performance measurement framework: A strategic-level case study Joaquim Soares, Geert Letens, Nathalie Vallet, Wouter Van Bockhaeven, Heather Keathley and Eileen Van Aken
	Dynamics of performance measurement in Australian government organisations Graham Smih	Simulation of process data enabling structural analysis, performance and optimization of the process model Kazimierz Waćkowski & Marta Jeżewska).	Making measurement meaningful: Performance management meets data governance Andrey Pavlov, Anna Ovchinnikova and Gennadiy Armashula
15.00	Coffee
16.45	Key Note Reflections on emerging performance measurement and management practice and implications for the field Prof Mike Bourne, Cranfield School of Management, UK
17.00	Closing Session
17.15	Close
19.00	Gala Dinner Bellotto Hotel Senatorska 13/15 00-075 Warsaw

Wednesday 26th September

8.30	Registration , Centre for Innovation and Technology Transfer Management of Warsaw University of Technology Rektorska 400-614 Warsaw
9.00	Session 14	Session 15 PMS and other functions
	The moderating effects of management accounting capabilities on the relationship between contemporary performance measurement systems and organizational performance Kazunori Fukushima and Takehiro Metok	43 PM and GM contractors
	Portfolio Performance Analysis: A Case Study of Cryptocurrencies. Florin Aliu, Premysl Palka, Michaela Blahova and Artor Nuhiu	40 Three dimensional
	A two-stage analytical performance measurement framework Syarifa Hanoum, Arman Hakim Nasution and Sardar. M.N. Islam	42 Bidding for
	Effectiveness in the conditions of a complex approach to the evaluation of economic activity results Stanislaw Marciniak	41 Critical process
11.00	Coffee
11.30	Best paper awards and closing remarks
12.30	Lunch
14.00	Close

